D. T. to Hold Dance Saturday at 4

D. T., sophomore honary society, announces that on the afternoon of Saturday, May 15, its annual tea dance will be held from four to six at Sigma Phi Place. Admission will be $1.00 per couple, and in addition to the dance the new members of D. T. will offer an entertainment, the nature of which will remain a secret until the afternoon of the dance.

At noon of the same day, the annual D. T. presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" will be offered on the chapel steps, with Charles Keane playing the role of Juliet, Hamilton Gouge that of Romeo. The undergraduates and their guests are invited to attend.

Hamilton Primed To Stop Bard This Friday

A much improved Hamilton baseball team will strive for its first win of the season against Bard College next Friday on its home diamond.

Little is known about the caliber of the Bard men. Last season Hamilton gained an easy victory over them, mainly due to the number of errors committed by the Bard infield. Now that the present Hamilton team has settled down to some good ball playing, as shown in the Rochester defeat, the Continentals should take the Bard game with plenty to spare.

Captain Frank Clark, whose one-hit pitching against Rochester was wasted last Saturday, will probably take the mound for the Buff and Blue. The infield consisting of Hilfinger, Sullivan, Towner, and Gillette, which worked well last Saturday, will undoubtedly be intact for the game. Jerry Button, who has been catching some fine games, will again be behind the bat, with Fowler, Wilcox, and Roider covering the outfield.

Now that Hamilton has improved its fielding, the sluggers on the team must come through to put the team in the winning column.

College Batsmen Bow to Strong Rochester Nine

One-hit pitching by Frank Clark was nullified by a no-hit performance turned in by Jerry Zornow last Saturday as Rochester took the Continental baseball team into camp by a 1-0 count. Hamilton miscues coupled with the Yellowjackets' lone bingle provided the Rivermen with their only tally.

The lone run crossed the plate in the first stanza. Smith, Rochester's lead-off man, got a life when Gillette muffed his slow roller. Mee was out, but Robeson singled to right field, sending Smith to third. Sullivan misjudged Zornow's bounder, and Smith scored with what proved to be the winning counter. No more Rochester men got so far as third base for the duration of the afternoon, but the damage was done.

Hamilton nearly tied it up in the fifth when a Rochester error gave Bill Towner. the Hill shortstop, a safety. Sullivan sacrificed, advancing Towner to second. Then Zipkin, the Yellow's backstop, let one of Zornow's tosses get away from him, and Towner opportunely pilfered third. A squeeze play was the logical move, and Gillette did his part by laying

College to Bestow Degrees Upon Several Notables At Commencement

Carter Glass, anti-New Deal Senator from Virginia, will be one of several prominent men to receive honary degrees at the Hamilton commencement exercises in June. He will be presented with the degree of Doctor of Laws, as will three Hamilton graduates well-known in Oneida County. They are Judge William F. Dowling '04, since 1932 Supreme Court Justice in Utica; Philip Caryl Jessup '18, of New York City; and Benjamin Dean Meritt '20, of Princeton University, who is a native of Vernon.

At the same time the degree of Doctor of Divinity will be bestowed upon the Rev. Theodore Cuyler

Last Wednesday morning after chapel, thirteen freshmen received a warm reception on the chapel steps in the way of thirteen powerful slaps on the back. These slaps will be flying thick and fast as far as the novitiates are concerned for about a week more. The chosen few may be distinguished by their little red carts, filled with dainties for the members of the society to which they are pledged, by their baby bonnets and red balloons, and by the champagne corks dangling from their lapels. D.T. has struck again.

Dramatics Class To Offer Two Plays Friday

This Friday evening, at nine o'clock, the Junior Class in Dramatic Interpretation will present two one-act plays in the Hall of Commons. The plays will be given under the direction of Professor Paul A. Fancher.

The first of the two plays—"The Last Man In"—is a dramatic tragedy, whose cast will include Mrs. Francis Mineka, John Kelsey, Joseph Santry, and Eugene Sullivan. The other play is of a much lighter vein; called "The Converts", it takes place in a Salvation Army barracks, where the action centers about two prize fighters, who will be played by Daniel Wells and George Beilby. Others in the cast are Mrs. Slater, of Clinton, and James Sibbison.

The two casts have been rehearsing the plays for many weeks, so that Friday's performances should be smooth and flawless. Most of the work on the sets will have been done by the members of the Dramatic Interpretation Class, as a regular part of their course. Carefully selected for Houseparty week-end, the two plays should do more than their share in entertaining Hamilton guests this Friday evening.

Musical Art Gives Annual Members Concert Friday

On Friday evening, in the Hall of Commons, the Musical Art Society presented its annual Members Concert, in which the Choir, the Band, and several soloists took part.

The Choir opened the program with "Water Boy," a negro convict song, with solo by John Kelsey '38, which was followed by "Dream of By-Gone Days," a Russian folk song used by the Choir on its recent broadcast. Next the Choir sang a Bavarian folk song, "Serenade," in which there was a solo by Edward Persike '39. This was followed by "The Galway Piper," an Irish folk song which was so enthusiastically received that it was repeated as an encore. As its second encore the Choir sang what has become one of its most popular numbers, "Das Lied von Rheinwein," better known as "Heda."

Richard F. Griffith '40 was the next soloist on the program; he played an arrangement for the baritone horn of Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Song of India." He was followed by Charles Nord '39, who played a Mendelssohn Nocturne on the French horn.

The next group of solos was offered by Eldred L. Ross '40, who

The Hamilton golf team remained undefeated this afternoon when it won its fifth consecutive victory in as many starts by downing Colgate to the tune of 5 to 4 on the Hamilton course.

Captain Sabine and Kelley, number one and two men on the Hamilton team respectively, played beautiful games, winning their matches easily.

In the first foursome, Sabine defeated Faye of Colgate 4 up and 3 to go, while Kelley took the Colgate number two man, Van Benschoten, 4 up and 2 to go. Best ball went to Hamilton, 4 up and 3 to go, leaving the score 3 to 0 in Hamilton's favor.

Hamilton won the best ball 1 up in the second foursome, even though the Colgate men won both their matches. Adamsen defeated Amsden 1 up, and Horne took Zwahlen over 2 up and 1 to go. Result: Hamilton 1, Colgate 2.

In the third foursome, Harris of Colgate defeated Gilmore 2 up and 1 to go, while Clapps, the other Colgate man, lost to Daw, 1 down. Hamilton lost the best ball 1 down.

The golf match did not get under way until late this af-

Editorial, Business Staffs Announced

Hamilton Life to Appear On Wednesdays After This Week's Issue

At a joint meeting of the editorial and business staffs of Hamilton Life last Thursday evening, several important changes were discussed and adopted. Some of the changes will go into effect immediately; others will have to be postponed until next fall.

Perhaps the most interesting of the proposals adopted the other evening, from the point of view of the students at Hamilton, was a reduction in the price of a year's subscription to Life, which will take effect with the first issue next fall. Hereafter a year's subscription will cost only $2.00, as compared to the present price of $2.50. The subscription price will be the same anywhere in the United States.

Special Offer is Made

As an added inducement to Hamilton students—in the hopes of arousing more interest in the new Hamilton Life—a special price of only $1.50, cash down, for one year's subscription is being made to all undergraduates, this price to be in effect only up through the thirty-first of this month. After that date the regular price of $2.00 will again hold. Some time during the next two or three weeks members of the business staff plan to contact all Hamilton students with the purpose of getting them to buy subscriptions to Life for 1937-38 at the special rate. The $1.50 must be paid in full, in cash. This low rate is also offered the members of the present senior class, who will be graduates next year and as such should want even more than the others to take advantage of this means of keeping in touch with life at Hamilton.

Another change adopted the other evening was the date of publication of Hamilton Life. Hereafter Life will appear every Wednesday evening of the college year, instead of every Thursday evening as formerly.

Hollywood Actress Sends Note to Hamilton Student

The fact that Hamilton students are capable of possessing deep-seated and pernicious repressions was brought to light last week when one Deke freshman confessed to writing a fan letter to that vivacious adolescent, Simone Simon.

The letter to Hollywood, secretly begging the movie actress for a large, autographed picture, was dispatched to the West Coast with trepidation. It was agreed among the first-year man's confidantes that any ordinary person writing to Simone might be expected to be ignored. But surely a college freshman had the advantage. And a Deke college freshman might even go so far as to expect not only the picture, but also an affectionate letter signed, "Yours, Simone."

Apparently little Simone was very busy last week, because the Deke mail brought no letter from the studio. Day followed day, and the freshman's frank confession of screenly amour brought no response.

Then the glorious day arrived. A pink envelope was nervously ripped open by the freshman-in-case, and the scented, mimeographed reply feverishly read. It ran:

"Twentieth Century-Fox Studios"

"Beverly Hills, California"

"Dear Friend:

"Your recent inquiry regarding my photo is sincerely appreciated and I wish it were possible for me to send it. As you can realize the number of such requests received makes the cost prohibitive. I hope you will not mind helping defray part of the expense. Many thanks for your interest and best wishes to you.

(Signed,in pencil) "Simone Simon"

8x10" Tinted—$1.00"

It is rumored that there is a very dejected Deke freshman wandering the campus at the present time. Bitterly disappointed in love, it is said that he has plastered gay photographs of Minnie Mouse all over the walls of his Carnegie room. At least Minnie is not mercenary.

Alpha Delts to Join Sigs in Dance at Sigma Phi Place

The Alpha Delts and the Sigs will again combine forces this Friday evening at the Sigma Phi Place, with Johnny Blanton and his orchestra providing the music. The same band will play for the D. T.tea dance Saturday.

Sigma Phi—Anne Hyde and Nell Schoellkopf, Buffalo; Muriel Cassidy, Miami, Florida; Virginia Pack, Irvington, N. Y.; Dot Harris, Swarthmore, Pa.; Dorie Dunmore, Utica; Jane Clark, Vermont; Bobby Haines, Skidmore; Eleanor Petri, Brookline, Mass.; Isabel Russell, Boston, Mass.; Betty Calder and Muffy Sicard, Utica. Chaperons: Mrs. Franklin Ely and Mrs. G. H. Petri.

Alpha Delta Phi—Betty Dorhamer and LuVerne Sherwood, Rome, N. Y.; Alice Kennigton and Mary Critels, New York; Betty Sabine, Smith; Jyme Colclough, Huntington; Greiba Schmaker, Penn Yan; Cyrena Sneath, Knox School; Eleanor Jamminet and Margaret Benson, Wellsley; Kay Porter, Sweetbriar; B. Turner, Brooklyn; Margaret Brandt, White Plains; Phyllis Blocksidge, Syracuse; Connie While, Chicago; Mildred Heitmann, New London, Conn.; Vivian West, Cortland, N. Y. THE NEW HAMILTON LIFE

Feeling as we do that Hamilton LIFE can be made vitally interesting to the undergraduates of Hamilton College as well as to the alumni—and feeling that it is up to us to prove this fact before we can expect our readers to believe us, we are offering all the students on the Hill a year's subscription to this paper at a reduction of twenty-five per cent. We know that many of you are somewhat prejudiced against LIFE, that many of you think it prints nothing but dead news, that some of you think it doesn't even do that well. This is the reason we are offering you—at a fraction of even the reduced rate—a year's subscription to Hamilton LIFE for only one dollar and a half. We are asking you to meet us part way; we are asking you to overcome your prejudice or your economy or whatever it is which has kept you from subscribing in the past, and to subscribe now for the coming year. We know that you can read your roommate's copy when he is through with it; we know that the weekly appearance of LIFE is nothing vital to your happiness. But we also believe that you would enjoy reading your roommate's copy more if it were more alive, if it were more interesting, if its long expanses of print were broken up more often with cuts and better headlines. By subscribing to Hamilton LIFE now, you can help us to make LIFE all that, and more.

For it is just such a goal which we have set ourselves—to make you proud of your college paper. And we need your support now. Not that we want you to subscribe to LIFE as an act of charity—far from it; we will keep our half of the bargain which your subscribing entails. What we do want is to have you accept our word for it that we will do all in our power to make LIFE more interesting, more readable—to take us on faith. For although the proof of the pudding is in the eating, one often has to pay for the pudding first in order to be able to eat it to prove it.

All of which, summed up in five words, means—Subscribe to Hamilton LIFE now.

MUSICAL ART CONCERT

We do not like to deal overmuch in superlatives, lest we sound too much like Great-Aunt Nelly's heavily-underscored epistulary compositions. But when we listen to a concert like the annual Members Concert given by the Musical Art Society last Friday, we feel somehow that "excellent" simply won't do. Neither will "excellent." Nor "EXCELLENT."

We are not intimating that the soloists the other evening were a bunch of Paderewskis or anything like that. We mean merely that they were unusually fine, as were both the choir and the band. Hamilton is not devoid of musicians yet. There was something about the singing and the playing the other evening which—though not entirely flawless—yet bespoke hours of hard labor giving flower eventually to results which by their very smoothness belied the hard labor behind them.

It seemed unfortunate to us that the majority of the student body did not hear the concert. We wonder if the admission fee to such a concert—a concert given by fellow-students, a concert which in its very variety would be far more interesting to the average college student than the (to him) rather tiring flow of Chamber Music—we wonder if perhaps the admission fee to such a concert might not have been less. From comments we have heard we would guess that the audience might easily have been twice as large had the admission fee been twice as small—and with the same receipts would have come a more inspiring audience. But all this is merely hazardous guesswork.

Suffice it to say that those who did not attend the concert the other night missed something. And again we want to praise each and every performer for his share in giving us such an enjoyable evening.

Remember that poem, "Crossing the Bar"? Well, we have just learned from a reliable source that modest Bill Woods recently crossed over one to take his bar examination. This was a three-hour Exam., and after it was all over, everyone present sang the Rover Boys' theme song:

"Everybody happy,
Everybody gay;
Gone tomorrow,

* * * * *

Among the members of our undergraduate body are two very accomplished showmen. During a recent stay in the palatial St. Lawrence Inn at Gouverneur, N. Y., these two young thespians, who refused us their names, being afflicted with insomnia, decided to break into the regular floor show—"Two-Hot Sizzling Dancers-Two". Clad in pajamas and shorts respectively, and with blankets draped loosely over them, the two tramped through the hallways and down staircases, brandishing rocks hammers and horrifying lady guests, young and otherwise. The climax came when one, great geologist that he is, tried to chip off part of the piano leg to take away for a geological specimen.

With House Party so near, it might be advisable to acquaint some of you fellows with the Spring Party Things-to-Remember:

1. Don't pick the flowers in Root's Glen.
2. The College Store is not a tap room.
3. Remember those dangerous curves.
4. Watch out for soft shoulders.
5. Commons is open all night, but they have no all-night license. Don't be fooled!
6. No swimming in the fountain.
7. The General's Dormitory Guards are human. Instead of trying to smuggle anything, invite them in to join you.
8. Inform your guests that D. T.'s are not Door Tenders, Was Los is not the German Club, and Pentagon is not made up of Math. sharks.

Alumni Notes

By Professor Edward Fitch

Grant S. Young '30, of Utica, who has been a law clerk in the office of Ezra Hanagea, now county judge, and of Maurice Supiro, was one of the successful candidates at the latest state bar examination.

A dinner in honor of Dean Alfange '22 will be held at the Hotel Astor in New York City on May 14. On that occasion, the presentation of the first Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Award will be made for his book "The Supreme Court and the National Will."

The class of 1887, numbering in all twenty-one living members, is planning to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. Sixteen of the class have already evinced intentions of being present on June 12. The class keeps its organization intact, with A. R. Serven of Washington, D. C. , as president and Robert A. Patterson of Tarrytown as secretary.

Charles H. Norris '36, now a graduate student in biology at Princeton University, has been appointed to a fellowship there for the coming year.

William H. Cole '14, professor of physiology at Rutgers University, has received a leave of absence for the first half of the coming year, and plans to spend that time at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. During the summer, while he is in Europe, his place at the Mount Desert Island Biological Laboratory will be taken by Professor Earl O. Butcher of Hamilton.

Announcement was made on May third of the publication of "Personality and the Cultural Pattern," by Dr. James S. Plant '12, director of the Essex County Juvenile Clinic, of Newark, New Jersey. The book is published by the Commonwealth Fund, New York City. The sub-title of the work is "The impact of environment upon inner mativation."

In the reorganization of the New York State Department of Public Welfare, as recently announced, James H. Foster '95 became director of aid to dependent children.

On Saturday, May 8, Dr. Edward Fitch '86 attended the annual meeting of the Managing Committee of the American School of Classical Studies in Athens. The meeting was held in the Low Library, Columbia University.

Sport Notes

By Winant Sidle '38

The ball game last Saturday was a pitchers' duel "par excellence". Frank Clark's pitching would have given Hamilton a victory in nine games out of ten, but it just happened that the Rochester pitcher picked the same day to turn in a no-hit, no-run performance. Rochester got her only run in the first inning—and it was unearned. After that the Webermen settled down to some real defensive baseball, and not another Riverman reached third base. Tough luck, Frank.

The track team outdid itself Saturday and reached a new scoring mark of 45 points. It scored six firsts, but lacked the power to supplement these firsts with enough seconds and thirds to make the meet close. George Meyl made the biggest score, winning both the 100 and the 220.

The golf team continued its undefeated season by winning from Rochester 4-2. The tennis team also won to help fulfil its pre-season show of promise. It looks as if these two aggregations will really give Hamilton something to be proud of this year. We might add that it's about time we had something to be proud of; we ought to show our gratitude by giving these two teams our most enthusiastic support.

The interest in interfraternity ping-pong seems to be waning. Ping-pong is definitely not a spring sport, and we hope that the league will be run in the winter next year, as it ought to be. Nevertheless it was a noble experiment, and a college tournament should gain a lot of support if any one has the energy to promote one.

The Varsity-ineligible track meet, next Thursday, should be fairly close. From all reports the ineligibles have some good men, and may give the regulars a run for their money. A victory by the ineligibles will be a very promising omen for next year's track team.

Fendall W. Yerxa, who will graduate from Hamilton this spring, has just been appointed to the post of Assistant Secretary of Admissions, in which capacity he will perform the duties of field secretary and will aid Mr. Wallace B. Johnson in his work as Registrar. Yerxa will be the first man ever to hold such a position.

Chalmers Speaks In Chapel Sunday

Last Sunday, in the College Chapel, the Rev. Allan Knight Chalmers, D.D., of the Broadway Tabernacle, New York City, delivered a sermon on the text: "A man can stand on his own feet," based on the Faith chapter in the Book of Hebrews.

Deploring the fog of doubt which creeps over many people today—a fog which a small constant fire of faith would defeat—Dr. Chalmers quoted from the writer of the Psalm which says, "In God have I put my trust. I will not fear what flesh can do unto me." In the testing of these words, maintained Dr. Chalmers, can a man stand on his own feet: Until, unless, and when. "Until a man stands on his own feet, God cannot use him....Unless a man stands on his own feet, others will not believe him...When a man stands on his own feet, life takes on meaning." This in turn reverts back to one's own self. Drawing his conclusion from the play "Winterset", Dr. Chalmers quoted Miriamne of that play, saying that it is better not to live and be truthful than to live a lie, than to live—as did Miriamne's brother—grovelling in the dirt. A man can, even when facing all the confusion and chaos of this world, stand upon his own feet.

The chapel preacher for next Sunday, May the 16th, is the Rev. Archibald Black, D.D., of the First Congregational Church in Montclair, New Jersey.

Clinton Is Invaded By Hooded Legions

It seems that the little town of Clinton is being terrorized by a "Black Legion" of its own. According to articles in recent issues of the Clinton Courier, certain youngsters in the village have banded together for the purpose of annoying smaller children and grownups. They locked one child up in a chicken house for several hours on a cold night a few weeks ago and have left others tied up in deserted barns. Not satisfied with picking on children, they have riddled the window-panes of several homes in Clinton with B-B shot and have smashed others.

Not to be out-done by the older group of night-prowlers which roams the village under the name of the "Black Legion", two other groups were organized a couple of weeks ago with smaller children as members. One prowls and marauds under the vaguely reminiscent appellation of "Hooded Legion", whereas the other—probably comprising several dime-novel readers—calls itself "The Terrors of the Hills". The Hooded Legion has been using a vacant house in the village as headquarters.

These "Legions" are probably direct results of the movie called "The Black Legion" which has been shown in Utica lately and of another called "The Hooded Legion" recently shown in Clinton. Although the former was supposed to be a daring expose, it looks as if somebody didn't quite get the point.

Mid-year examinations have been abolished at Vassar, it is reported.

Hill Societies Begin Intramural Sports

With the advent of daylight saving time and with several days of good weather to stimulate their enthusiasm, the participants in Hamilton's interfraternity sports are looking forward to a banner season.

The Tekes and the Psi U's opened the interfraternity soft ball league Friday, when the latter won a free-hitting battle by the score of 39 to 27. This year the fraternities are divided into two leagues with six teams in one section and five in the other.

In the "A" league the Alpha Delts are scheduled to meet the D. U.'s, the Sigs the Neutrals, and the Emerson Lits the Theta Delts. In the "B" league the Dekes oppose Lambda Chi, the Psi U's have already defeated the Tekes, and the Chi Psi's have drawn a bye.

Lou Greenbaum is running the interfraternity golf matches. They will be played under intercollegiate rules with four men on a team. Each team is divided into two two-man teams and each foursome will play for the best ball score as well as the regular match play, making a total of 6 points for each contest. The fraternities are divided into three sections, and the winners of all the groups will meet in a round robin. The fraternities are divided into the following divisions: Alpha Delts, Sigs, Lambda Chi's, and Chi Psi's; Psi U's, Theta Delts, E. L. S., and Tekes; the Dekes, Neutrals, and D. U's.

1937 Hamiltonian to Be Ready Thursday-Sidle New Editor

The 1937 Hamiltonian will appear on Thursday of this week, according to Editor John Henninger. This year's issue will stress photographs throughout, of which there are several excellent ones of athletic teams by Madell of Utica, who did all of the work on the regular photographic features. There are many campus snapshots by such Hill amateurs as Eisenhardt, Esty, and Barker. Unlike last year's Hamiltonian, this year's will not include any literary features.

Winant Sidle '38 has been selected to fill the vacancy which Editor Henninger will leave, while J. Sheron Fullerton '38 will succeed Business Manager Herbert Slade. Winant Sidle is also Editor of next year's Freshman Handbook and Sports Editor of Hamilton Life. Other retiring editor is Moses Sweetgall, Managing Editor.

AATG Meets at Clinton Saturday

Professor and Mrs. Hauch were host and hostess to the Central New York Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of German at the Faculty Club Saturday afternoon. There were about thirty at the meeting, including members and guests. A resolution proposed by Dr. Hauch concerning the relation of the AATG to politics was discussed, but no definite action was passed upon. After the discussion was over, Dr. Kubler of Colgate University spoke on Book-Burning in Germany. He treated his subject with very interesting, scholarly insight. The meeting was adjourned soon afterwards.

There will be a meeting of the Hamilton German Club tomorrow evening at the Psi Upsilon House, at which Dr. Liedke will speak. He will discuss the difficulties of translating. This will be the next to the last meeting planned by the German Club for this year, the last being a "patriotic pilgrimage" to Baron von Steuben's tomb. The pilgrimage will take place on the 23rd of this month.

Hill Poliscientists At Union Seminar

Four Hamilton students traveled to Union last Friday night to take part in the first informal seminar held in conjunction with the Schenectady college. Under the direction of Professor James Q. Dealey of the Hill Political Science Department, the group, composed of Andrew S. Moscrip '37, Milton Kaylan '37. Charles A. Hoffman '38, and W. Allenby Jones '39, met with the Union students and faculty representatives to discuss vital, contemporary political problems.

Moscrip gave a paper on the recent Wagner Act ruling by the Supreme Court, while Kaplan concentrated his efforts on the A A A. Meeting in Silliman Hall on the Schenectady campus, the gathering discussed these and other pertinent measures of the President's New Deal policies. A general talk on the Supreme Court reorganization plan followed the presentation of the Guffey Bill by a Union delegate.

It was suggested by Professor Campbell of the Union faculty that the seminar become an annual event, alternating in its location between the two campuses. Hailing it as a means of creating a closer and more beneficial relation between the two colleges, the Hamilton students lauded the idea of continuing the seminar.

NEWMAN CLUB HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

At a communion breakfast held at the Spinning Wheel in Clinton last Sunday morning, Rae F. Nichols '38 was elected to succeed William J. Taylor '37 as president of the Newman Club. E. Cecil Eagan '38 will take over the duties of William J. Gregg '37, retiring vice-president.

Judge Dowling '04 spoke at the breakfast, as did Edward M. Coughlin and William J. Morris, the latter pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Clinton, N. Y.

75% of the students at the University of the South belong to a League whose members have pledged not to dance with girls wearing corsages.

Executive Council Elections

As a result of the preliminary election held in chapel on Monday morning of this week for members of the Executive Council of the Undergraduate Association, two men of the Class of 1938 will be chosen from the following: Guilford, Sidle, Sullivan, and Wells; two of the Class of 1939 from among: Hilfinger, L. Hole, Tice, and Towner; one member of the Class of 1940 from R. Griffith, Sisson, and J. Thomas.

Houseparty Issue Of "Continental" To Appear Friday

According to Editor-in-Chief John Baldwin, the next issue of the Continental and Royal Gaboon will be out in time to greet the guests at Hamilton's Houseparty this week-end. The magazine—which will be on sale on Friday—includes many good, snappy stories by Shankland, Linn, Merritt, and Glenn, as well as quite a bit of humorous poetry and four pages of jokes.

Succumbing to the modern trend of doing everything surrealistically, the Continental and Royal Gaboon is printing in this issue a surrealist story by an author who for the time being is remaining anonymous. The cover, also, is surrealistic; it is a linoleum print by Persike and Lenci, representing something—no one knows just what—but representing it very well indeed. This will probably be the last issue of the Continental to appear during the present college year.

Rochester Tops Hill Track Team

On a home field made soggy by intermittent bursts of rain, the Rochester track team defeated the Hill squad last Saturday afternoon by the score of 81 to 45. Despite the rain, the track was well-packed and fairly fast.

Meyl, who took first place in both the 100-and 220 yard-sprints, was high scorer for the day. Four other first places were garnered by the Buff and Blue team, but its inability to score second places accounted for Rochester's greater margin. Wells, in the shot put, Kirk, in the javelin, McLaughlin, in the high hurdles, and Estabrook, in the lows, all took first places in their respective events.

Rochester made a clean sweep of both the high jump and the 440-yard run in addition to taking one-two in the 880, the mile, the two-mile, the broad jump, and the discus events. This result shows only too clearly Hamilton's weakness in the middle and long-distance runs, as well as in the jumps.

Coach Winter's squad has now two weeks before its next competition, which will be a triangular track meet to be held here on the Hill. Rochester will again compete against the Continental squad, while Alfred University will also journey here to take place in the meet.

Comparatively little is known about the Alfred track team this year, but judging by the fact that she has turned out powerful aggregations in the past, it is probable that her squad this year will be strong.

In face of last Saturday's results, it seems very unlikely that Hamilton will show up very well in the forth-coming meet. However, if Alfred is strong in the events which Rochester took last Saturday, the final scores may give the locals an outside chance for a victory. Last Saturday's results:

Pole Vault: first, Day (R); second, Rinas (H); third, Shetterly (R); height—11 feet, 1½ inches.

Shot Put; first, Wells (H); second, Nordburg (R); third, Stugis (R); distance—40 feet.

High Jump: first, Wells (R); tie for second, Zoller (R) and Weller (R); height—5 feet, 10 inches.

Javelin: first, Kirk (H); second, Adler (H); third, Walworth (R); distance—148 feet, 7 inches.

Discus: first, McDowell (R); second, Stugis (R); third, Fancher (H); distance—126 feet, 2½ inches.

Broad Jump: first, Gersbach (R); second, Weingartner (R); third, Mangan (H); distance—20 feet, 1½ inches.

Mile Run: first, Newton (R); second, Kircher (R); third, Bramley (H); time—4 minutes, 48 3/10 seconds.

440-Yard Run: first Wood (R); second, Batzell (R); third, Addington (R); time—52 3/10 seconds.

100-Yard Dash: first, Meyl (H); second, Prozeller, (R); third, Gersbach (R); time—10.4 seconds.

120-Yard High Hurdles: first, McLaughlin (H); second, Dalton (H); third, Weingartner (R); time, 16.9 seconds.

880-Yard Run: first, Hoyt (R); second, McCowan (R); third, Tice (H);time—2 minutes, 5 seconds.

220-Yard Dash: first, Meyl (H); second, Wood (R); third, Prozeller (R); time—23 seconds.

Two-Mile Run: first, DeLancy (R); second, Erskine (R); third, Power (H); time—10 minutes, 40.8 seconds.

220-Yard Low Hurdles: first, Estabrook (H); second, Kinney (R); third, Dalton (H); time—26.2 seconds.

Last Thursday evening Coach Winters showed movies of fotball games to prospective gridiron men. The pictures, which were given in the gymnasium, showed last fall's Minnesota football team in action.

Quartos and Quarter-Notes

By Allan W. Cantor '38

The annual Members Concert of the Musical Art Society held last Friday brought not a large crowd of listeners, but a sympathetic one. Every part of the program, whether a delicate Chopin "Fantasie-Impromptu" or a thumping Sousa march, was enthusiastically received.

And rightly so. The Choir was never in better voice. This precisely-functioning group sang "Water Boy", negro convict song, with John S. Kelsey performing the solo with usual dramatic consciousness. The Russian folk-song which had received such favorable comment on its radio presentation, "Dream of By-gone Days", was followed by the Bavarian "Serenade". Edward C. Persike jr. sang the solo with tonal exactitude. The next number was a rollicking, gay Irish folk-song, done with amazing vivacity and precision; it proved to be so popular with the audience that it had to be repeated. For the second encore, the Choir did its usual robust, stein-in-hand-arm-in-arm-spirited "Heda".

Richard D. Griffith played Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Song of India" on his baritone very capably, injecting new blood into the time-worn melody. A Mendelssohn "Nocturne" was played on the French horn by Charles L. Nord. Appearing for the first time as a soloist in a Hill concert was Eldred L. Ross '40. Ross possessed more than an ample amount of stage presence, though his fluent knowledge of his music led to a slightly mechanical interpretation. A MacDowell "Prelude" and Godard's "Valse Brilliante" were followed with the encore "Scarf Dance" by Chaminade.

The brass quartet which had performed so outstandingly in the band concert the week before again presented two Mendelssohn numbers. Except for an unfortunate solo trumpet mis-step, the four men—John Carter, Richard Griffith, Sam Lake, and Charles Nord—did an excellent job. H. Craig Hutchinson's piano playing was one of the finer events of the evening. Two Palmgren impressionistic pieces, "May Night" and "The Sea", Hutchinson played with a sensitive touch which gave the music the nuances necessary to tonal colour. His Chopin "Fantasie-Impromptu" was dexterous and smooth.

Frank J. Clark was unable to be at the concert; the Band, despite a paucity of instrumentalists, completed the evening's program. They played the "Washington Post March", the overture to "The Oracle", and the "Tenth Regiment March", all handled with energy and zest. Unless more reed and woodwind players offer their services, it is to be feared that the Band will degenerate into a brass-predominant bugle-and-drum corps. But a lot of brass is better than no band at all.

Slightly indicative of the coming Interclass Sing were the students sitting outside of Commons eavesdropping on the musical sounds being produced within. (It was unfortunate that a student concert could not have been thrown open to all of the undergraduates.) An outdoor music festivalette is the logical answer for these spring nights.

Rochester Easily Beaten by College Golf Team Last Saturday Afternoon

Led by Jack Sabine '37 and Tommy Kelley '38, Hamilton's undefeated golf team kept its record unblemished for this season by defeating the University of Rochester's golfers 4 to 2 last Saturday afternoon at Rochester.

Sabine and Kelley, veterans from last year's team, played together to win over Rochester's first two-man team by a score of 3 up and 2 to play in their best ball match. The other Hamilton team of Harry Gilmore and Larry Daw was defeated 5 up and 4 to go in the other best ball contest.

In the match play Sabine played against Moll, Rochester's No. 1 man, and won 1 up. Kelley played opposite Motta of the Yellowjackets and also won 1 up. In the other singles matches Larry Daw was successful, being 3 up on his opponent at the end of 18 holes, while Harry Gilmore lost by a 7 and 5 count.

This victory was Hamilton's fourth in as many starts. So far this season the locals have defeated Union, the Cornell J. V., Syracuse, and Rochester.

INTERCLASS SOFT-BALL TOURNAMENT STARTS

Prevented by rain from starting the interclass soft-ball tournament last Thursday, the class teams did not finally get under way until yesterday. Scheduled for yesterday afternoon were two games, one between the Seniors and the Freshmen, the other between the Juniors and the Sophomores, but when neither of the two upperclass teams appeared, the Freshmen took on the Sophomores and defeated them to the tune of 12 to 7. The games originally planned for yesterday were postponed till today.

The captains of the four class teams are Streitz '37, Truesdell '38, Hummer '39, and Geer '40. The games are under the management of Rae Nichols '38.

Last year's winners were the Freshmen (now Sophomores); their team, however, has been pretty well split up by appointments to the varsity squad, with the result that the teams will be pretty well matched, the Freshmen having a possible advantage.

Last Saturday, the Hamilton tennis team journeyed to Rochester, where it won decisively 7-2. Hugh Riddleberger, Hamilton's number one man, defeated Len Swett of Rochester by the one-sided score of 6-1, 6-0. The only singles match won by Rochester was Al Turner's 7-5, 6-1 win over Bill Erickson, Hamilton sophomore, who was playing in the number five slot.

The Rochester team was novel in that it contained a pair of twins, Bob and Dick Dickinson, who were almost identical in appearance. They were unable to confuse Joe Hopkins and Erickson in the doubles match, however, losing 8-6, 6-8, 6-3. Captain Hopkins displayed his usual dependable game in defeating Bob Dickinson 6-3, 6-4. Rocco Benedetto, Hamilton's number six man, broke into the winning column by defeating Cohen of Rochester in a hard-fought match, 5-7, 6-4, 6-3. Monty Pooley and Bill Getman displayed good tennis in beating Greene and Dick Dickinson 6-2, 6-3, and 6-8, 6-3, 6-3 respectively.

The scores:

Singles: Riddleberger (H) defeated Swett (R) 6-1, 6-0; Hopkins (H) defeated Bob Dickinson (R) 6-3, 6-4; Pooley (H) defeated Greene (R) 6-2, 6-3; Getman (H) defeated Dick Dickinson (R) 6-8, 6-3, 6-3; Turner (R) defeated Erickson (H) 7-5, 6-1; Benedetto (H) defeated Cohen (R) 5-7, 6-4, 6-3.

Doubles: Riddleberger and Pooley defeated Swett and Greene 6-1, 6-0; Hopkins and Erickson defeated Bob and Dick Dickinson 8-6, 6-8, 6-3; Getman and Benedetto lost to Turner and Cohen 6-3, 6-3.

The match scheduled with Drew Thursday afternoon was called off because of rain.

On May 12, the Hill racqueteers will journey to Schenectady to take on the Union netmen. With the experience of several matches behind it, the Hill team stands a fine chance of defeating its ancient foe.

Dictators and Dictatorships is the subject of a course to be offered at Colgate University next year, which will study the methods by which dictators get into power.

LIFE'S CHANGES—

the method of conducting future competitions was finally decided upon. Hereafter, only the seniors on the two staffs (who will take office immediately after the spring vacation of their junior year) will hold the position of either editor or manager. All juniors on the editorial staff will be Reporters; all sophomores, Competitors.

Everybody remaining on either staff will be expected to take some part in the publication of Life and will receive a cut of any profit which Life may make.

Hereafter the editors of Life will jointly adopt a definite editorial policy, to which all editorials appearing in this paper will have to conform. There will be no more competitive issues, in which the editorial policy (if one could call it such) veers from one extreme to another from issue to issue. In the future all new editors will be elected on the basis of work done as competitors and later as reporters, during which periods they will have been instructed in such routine tasks as are part and parcel of publishing a newspaper. The same will apply to all those elected to the business staff. Hereafter, all editors and managers will be elected by the combined senior staffs of Hamilton Life—and only by the senior staffs of Hamilton Life. It is felt that only thus will the competitions be fairly judged on the basis of quality and quantity of work done.

The new staffs of Hamilton Life, as finally decided upon, are as follows:

Business Board: William M. Deller, Business Manager; Francis E. Taylor, Circulation Manager—both of the Class of '38.

It was also decided the other evening that hereafter there shall be two men on the business board —a business manager, in charge of advertising, and a circulation manager, in charge of subscriptions. It was further decided that the Carpe Diem Editor shall rank as any other editor on the editorial staff and shall be elected in the same way, although at the nomination of the retiring Carpe Editor.

SENATOR GLASS—

Speers, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Utica and now minister of the Central Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Senator Glass, famous author of the Glass Banking Bill, Convention of 1932, already holds the degree of Doctor of Laws from eight other universities and colleges, including the University of North Carolina, Washington and Lee, Lafayette, Wesleyan, Tufts, William and Mary, Yale,and Princeton.

Mr. Speers graduated from Princeton in 1921, from where he went to the Union Theological Seminary. He was ordained into the Presbyterian ministry by the Newark Presbytery of New Jersey in 1925.

Philip C. Jessup was connected with the banking establishment headed by Charles B. Rogers in Utica before he finally decided to study law; he received the degree of Bachelor of Laws from Yale University in 1924.

Meritt, now professor in the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, has taught Greek in several universities in this country. He received his Master of Arts degre from Princeton in 1923, his doctorate in 1924.

BATSMEN BOW—

down a perfect bunt, but Towner delayed too long before starting for home, and Zornow's perfect throw nailed him at the plate.

It was a veritable field day for the pitchers because only six balls were hit out of the infield during the entire proceedings. Only one of these was by a Hamilton man. Clark's control was a bit better than Zornow's since he walked no one and struck out four. Zornow, however, made up for this by whiffing eleven of the Hillmen.

Roy Wilcox almost shattered Zornow's no-hit hopes in the fifth when he smacked a sizzling liner down the first base line, but the Rochester first sacker made a nice stop and Roy was out.

Hamilton looked very good in the field after its jittery first inning. Even in the first inning, after the run had scored, Sullivan and Hilfinger pulled a nice double play to end the Rochester baserunning for the day. Jerry Button, Hamilton's "piano-legged" backstop, had an odd day at bat. He was walked every time he was up except the last, when he was hit by a pitched ball.

FORUM

Editor, Hamilton Life:
Dear Sir,

I was greatly interested in reading an article in a recent issue of Life regarding the experiences of Mr. Osterhout on the ill-fated "Mohawk."

It happens that an old friend, Mr. Adolph F. Knobbe, who has been this Company's resident representative in Mexico City for a great many years, was in the same disaster. On that account I clipped the little article and sent it to him. Today I have an acknowledgement, from which I quote the following pertinent paragraph:

Thanks for the clipping of the student newspaper of Hamilton College, your alma mater. It may interest you to know that the four students were playing bridge right next to our table, we also distinctly heard the rather loud spoken words "Here it is" at the time of the collision, also that it was the very Karl S. Osterhout who first assisted me rubbing my frozen legs with salt.

Sincerely yours,
George L. Abbott '10.
President, Garlock Packing Co.
Palmyra, New York.

All sophomores wishing to compete for the business staff of Hamilton Life, who have not already done so, should give their names to William M. Deller '38, Emerson Hall, immediately.

MUSICAL ART—

was making his first appearance on the Hill as a piano soloist. He played the Prelude to the First Suite of MacDowell, "Valse Brilliante" by Goradr, and—as encore —Chaminade's "Scarf Dance."

Ross was followed by the Band's Brass Quartette, which is rapidly gaining an enviable reputation for clever arangements of both popular and classical pieces. It played "Song Without Words" by Mendelssohn and an amusing "Kinderstuck" by the same composer.

H. Craig Hutchinson '38 opened his group of piano solos with two compositions by Palmgren, "May Night" and "The Sea," followed by Chopin's familiar "Fantaisie-Impromptu," with Dubussy's "Golliwog's Cakewalk" as an encore.

The concert was concluded with three selections by the Band, under the direction of Sam Lake '39. They played Sousa's "Washington Post March," Overture to "The Oracle" by Otis Taylor, and R. B. Hall's "Tenth Regiment March." As an encore the band played "Carissima," which was sung by the audience. The concert was a complete success, the only disappointment being the absence of Frank Clark '37, who was prevented by an injured hand from adding two violin solos to the program. Herbert E. Long '39 was accompanist for the Choir, and H. Craig Hutchinson accompanied the various soloists.

VICTIMS OF ACCIDENT IN SERIOUS CONDITION

According to information received late this afternoon, the two young men who were hurt in the accident on College Hill the other evening are in a serious but not critical condition. One of them, who suffered fractures and internal injuries, has been transferred from the Faxton Hospital in Utica to a hospital in Little Falls, of which both men are natives. The two girls who were with them were not nearly so badly hurt and are now progressing favorably. They are both natives of Chadwicks. The accident was caused by the driver's inability to make the sharp turn in the middle of the Hill; he was in an intoxicated condition and was driving down the Hill at an unusually great speed. The car knocked down a telegraph pole just below the Arbor and turned over. This was the first real accident of any sort to occur on College Hill for several years in spite of the fact that there are no danger signals on the Hill.
